

U.S. Embassy Asuncion, Paraguay
Security Message for U.S. Citizens – Upcoming Protests in Asuncion
Friday, March 21, 2014

The U.S. Embassy alerts U.S. citizens that there is a demonstration scheduled for Friday, March 21 at 7 p.m. in Asuncion. Significant protest activity is expected in the downtown area. The announced purpose of the event is to protest against a recent decision to remove an anti-corruption prosecutor.

A large number of demonstrators are expected in downtown Asuncion, specifically near La Plaza Uruguay and the Public Ministry. The group plans to gather at La Plaza Uruguay and then march with torches to the Public Ministry building.

Even demonstrations intended to be peaceful can turn confrontational and escalate into violence. You should avoid areas of demonstrations, and exercise caution if in the vicinity of any large gatherings, protests, or demonstrations. Review your personal security plans; remain aware of your surroundings, including local events; and monitor local news stations for updates. Maintain a high level of vigilance and take appropriate steps to enhance your personal security and follow instructions of local authorities.

We strongly recommend that U.S. citizens traveling to or residing in Paraguay enroll in the State Department's Smart Traveler Enrollment Program (STEP). STEP enrollment gives you the latest security updates and makes it easier for the U.S. embassy or nearest U.S. consulate to contact you in an emergency. If you don't have internet access, enroll directly with the nearest U.S. embassy or consulate.

Regularly monitor the State Department's website, where you can find current Travel Warnings, Travel Alerts, and the Worldwide Caution. Read the Country Specific Information for Paraguay. For additional information, refer to "A Safe Trip Abroad" on the State Department's website.
